Sector
Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Current situation as of 1700 hrs.

There are less than 20 people on Parliament Hill and a further 3-400 people in the area of Wellington, Elgin, Rideau and Sussex. There has been no change in our geographic boundaries. There are vehicles shuffling around in the immediate area, being monitored.

The deployment of integrated police teams continues in a variety of Static Traffic, QRT, mobile response and CSET. Officers continue to educate and deter ingress of supplies to the inner perimeter with enforcement activities continuing with integrated OPS/Bylaw teams.

PLT, supported by QRT's are engaged in another round of flyer distributions with the various protest groups. There continues to reports of aggressive and defiant behavior by the crowds, especially in the Wellington corridor.

As a result of a provincial notification, a suspect wanted on arrest warrants for weapons offences was arrested without incident on Metcalfe. The suspect vehicle was driven out of the immediate area by officers before crowds could arrive, mitigating any potential public safety risks.

The fencing around is still going up around the Parliamentary Precinct. The act has created some issues with the protestors requiring presence of officers.

One protestor was arrested by an integrated QRT after she spat on a member of PPS. Accused transported to cells for processing.

Second disturbance occurred which resulted in a strong police presence in front of the stage at Wellington and Metcalfe where a subject was arrested for criminal offences. There was NO issues with the crowds who did not challenge police.
